Indian Institute of Information Technology,
Bhagalpur, India

Dear esteemed Rupam Bhattacharya
Department of Computer Science

This letter is to confirm that Saichethan Reddy is a Club Captain in the Mozilla Campus Clubs Program. We support their effort to organize a Mozilla Club on your campus.

About Mozilla

Mozilla is a non-profit foundation based in the United States. Our mission to ensure that the Internet is a global public resource, open and accessible to all. To further that effort, we assist a global community of volunteers who are passionate about teaching and building the Web.

Campus Clubs

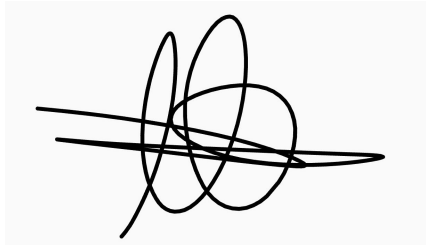

A Mozilla Campus Club is a group of students who meet regularly to ensure the Internet is a global public resource, open and accessible to all, by leading and participating in activities that teach, build, and protect the web in an inclusive, engaging way. Sample activities may include running or participating in hackathons, learning and developing in new programming languages, and building for virtual reality.

Club Captains

Club Captains (Club Leaders) and their Executives (Leaders who help the Club Captain run activities and programs) are encouraged to organize activities and initiatives at their local Universities or Colleges that advance this mission. Club Captains are Mozilla volunteers. Club Captains are not employed by Mozilla and are not authorized to bind, officially speak, or recruit on behalf of Mozilla.

To learn more about Campus Clubs visit campus.mozilla.community and to learn about Mozilla please visit www.mozilla.org for details. We thank you for your time and dedication in aiding this student. For any questions or further information, please e-mail the Campus Clubs team at campusclubs@mozilla.com

Thank you for your time,
